

In regards to the proposed Broadband Over Power Line...
As an Amateur Radio Operator, I am concerned with noise generation and possible interference. As a Network Engineer, I am also concerned about the ability to "sniff" packets via radiated signals from the power lines. Thank you for your consideration of my comments.